The “Becoming a Physician: Ethical Challenges in Medical Education” conference is the only medical ethics conference to focus on the ethical challenges medical students encounter on the path to becoming physicians. It is intended to be a forum for medical students to present their reflections on these challenges.

The organizing committee invites abstracts for oral presentations on the ethical issues that arise in and because of one’s role as a medical student. Potential topics include, but are not limited to: the impact of race in medical practice; transgender health; healthcare for prisoners; moral distress; hierarchy in medicine.

The AMA Journal of Ethics encourages students whose abstracts were accepted for presentation at the conference to develop and submit manuscripts for publication consideration.

Eligibility
To submit an abstract the author must be enrolled in an accredited medical college. Abstracts co-authored with faculty or residents will not be considered.

Submission
All submissions should include two MSWord documents: a 350-word abstract with title and no identifying information and a cover page with the following information: 1) abstract title; 2) author name; 3) author affiliation; and 4) email address.

Best Abstract Award
The organizing committee will award the best abstract a monetary prize in the amount of $200.

Please email your submissions to nada.gligorov@mssm.edu.

The conference is organized by the Bioethics Program and the Medical Ethics Student Organization of the Icahn School of Medicine at Mount Sinai and is supported by the AMA Journal of Ethics.
