

APPLICATION OF THE ONE HEALTH APPROACH TO GLOBAL HEALTH CENTERS

ALBERT EINSTEIN COLLEGE OF MEDICINE

DECEMBER 3RD-4TH

TENTATIVE AGENDA

8:30 am	Registration and Breakfast
9:00 am	Welcome	Dr. L. Weiss
9:10 am	One Health Overview: definition, history, significance	Dr. W.B. Karesh, Exec VP for Health and Policy, EcoHealth Alliance
9:50 am	How can One Health help with easing Global Burden of Disease?
	Human Health: Infectious Disease and NCDs	Dr. N. Vora, Director of Special Projects for the Division of Disease Control, NYC
	Development Impact	Dr. F. Berthe, Sr Livestock Specialist, World Bank Group
		Dr. C. Barton-Behravesh, Director, CDC One Health Office
	Reducing Socio-Economic Consequences	TBA
	Disaster Risk Reduction and Refugee Health	Dr. C. Wannous, Toward a Safer World
	Capacity Building for Global Health Security	Dr. E. Mumford, WHO
11:30 am	Break
11:45 am	Panel discussion and Q&A
12:45 pm	Lunch and Breakout sessions - Facilitating pathways for One Health
	Students
	Faculty and Academic Programs
	Publishing and Reporting
2:00 pm	Case studies for Applying One Health Approaches
	Integrated approaches to understand emerging viral diseases: Rift Valley Fever and Nipah viruses	Dr. M. Rostal, senior research scientist and field veterinarian
	Tuberculosis and other Mycobacteria	Dr. M. Larsen, Einstein Global Health Center
	Drivers of Antibiotic Resistance	Dr. R. Laxminarayan, director of the Center for Disease Dynamics, Economics & Policy (CDDEP)
	Disease Determinants in Urban Slums	Dr. A. Ko, Yale School of Public Health
3:45	Break
4:00	Clinical practice

APPLICATION OF THE ONE HEALTH APPROACH TO GLOBAL HEALTH CENTERS

ALBERT EINSTEIN COLLEGE OF MEDICINE

DECEMBER 3RD-4TH

TENTATIVE AGENDA

	Sentinel detection of human health threats	Dr. J.A.K. Mazet, UC Davis One Health Institute, and PI, USAID Emerging Pandemic Threats PREDICT-2 project
	Event reporting: power of data in medicine from a One Health lens	Dr. L. Madoff, ProMED
	Novel disease discovery- examples from the US and abroad	TBA
		Dr. Tina Parker, NIAID, Office of Biodefense Translational Resources
	Fisheries and Wildlife Conservation	TBA
5:30	Concluding remarks
6:00-6:45	Networking (light reception)
Dec. 4 th
8:00 am	Breakfast
8:30 am	Continuing remarks from yesterday
9 – 11 am	How can One Health be applied to current medical school curriculum and practice (the experience of different schools and centers)?
	Reports from academic and curriculum-setting institutions regarding their OH efforts
		Dr. Gebreyes, OSU
		Dr. Greg Gray, Duke,
		Dr. R. Ruiz de Casteneda, Institut de Sante Globale – head, One Health/EcoHealth Unit
	Examples from veterinary medicine	TBA

APPLICATION OF THE ONE HEALTH APPROACH TO GLOBAL HEALTH CENTERS

ALBERT EINSTEIN COLLEGE OF MEDICINE

DECEMBER 3RD-4TH

TENTATIVE AGENDA

11-12:15	Synthesizing needs and opportunities: direction-setting
12:15 pm	Concluding remarks and end of conference	