2018-2019 Amended Holiday Schedule

Election Day

Full-time, Einstein employees who are eligible to vote and are scheduled to work at least seven (7) hours on Election Day are eligible for up to two (2) hours off with pay on Tuesday, November 6, 2018. Part-time employees scheduled to work on Election Day are eligible for time off on a pro-rata basis. Time off should be scheduled in the morning or at the end of the day in order to minimize disruption to services. The scheduling of time off is based on operating needs and is, therefore, at the discretion of supervisory staff within each department.

Sabbath Observance for Central Administration for 2018-2019

In observance of the Jewish Sabbath, all Central Administration offices will be officially closed at 4:00 p.m. each Friday effective November 9, 2018 through March 6, 2019. During this period, employees in Central Administration offices must compensate for the early Friday departure during the same work week by shortened lunch hours, early arrivals, late departures, or any combination thereof, subject to the approval of the department head. Those employees of the College of Medicine who are observant of the Sabbath and need to leave earlier than 4:00 p.m. should be permitted to do so under the same terms as outlined above.
