Stipend Level/Salary Policy (PostDoc)

I. Purpose
This Policy defines stipend levels for postdoctoral researchers at Albert Einstein College of Medicine ("Einstein" or "College of Medicine").

II. Scope
This Policy applies to postdoctoral researchers at Einstein’s Belfer Institute for Advanced Biomedical Studies.

III. Policy
Albert Einstein College of Medicine will have a minimum stipend level to match the NIH base minimum.

No research fellow will be hired below the prevailing minimum stipend level. Incumbent research fellows will be incremented to at least the prevailing minimum stipend level within two months of the NIH announcement. Mentors are encouraged to exceed this minimum stipend level commensurate with the training, expertise, and productivity of the individual. The NIH stipend schedule for NRSA fellows is a reasonable guide to postdoctoral starting stipends. For the current NIH stipend schedule, go to http://www.einstein.yu.edu/research/belfer-institute/postdoctoral-policies/stipend-level.aspx.

IV. Definitions
